Reported That General Von Der Goltz Will Aid in Reorganization of Turkish Army.

paris, July 27.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Petit Parisian states that the Sultan has seriously resolved to reorganize the Turkish army, and to that end may engage the services of General von der Goltz. He has determined to remove from his entourage all personages who are favorable to the old order of things.

General Von der Goltz is considered one of the highest of German military authorities. He had the task of organizing the Turkish army on a former occasion, and when he arrived in Constantinople July 1st on a mission the nature of which has not yet been revealed, he was received by the Sultan with extraordinary honors. Incidentally it may be mentioned that Ghazi Mouktar Pasha. Turkey's most distinguished solder, is paying a visit to Berlin.

Constantinople. July 27.—Demonstrations over the new Turkish Constitution, which was promulgated July 14th, continue. A crowd of over 200, 200 persons gathered outside the palace this morning and cheered the Sultan.

A RUSSIAN DESERTER

Starving and Penniless, Seeks Aid from Soldiers in Italy.

PLACENZA, ITALY, 1927.—Today, at the depot of Forty-ninth Regiment of Infantry, there appeared a young man, tall, dark and bearing evident traces of suffering, who stated that he was a deserter from the Russian navy. Asked to give further details, he stated that his name was Sviatopolk, that he was twenty-six years of age and a native of Tiflis. At the time of the Russo-Japanese War he was a lleutenant on board the battleship Retvizan.

He deserted, and had since wandered through England and France, and finally come to Italy. He had worked for a living at all sorts of trades, Recently, however, he had been reduced to such an extreme of misery and starvation that he had decided to ask the military authorities to give some assistance. The young Russian produced documents which proved the truth of his story.

AMERICANS ALWAYS TALKING

British Orntory Controversy Arouses Sir Charles Wyndham to Sarcasm.

Sir Charles Wyndham to Sarcasm.

LONDON, July 27.—A newspaper controversy has begun on the subject of British and American oratory. A Canadian correspondent declared it was noticeable at the recent Pan-American Congress how much better the American spoke than the Englishmen.

A British member of the conference corroborated this by declaring the best of the Americans at the congress were as good as the best of the hanglish, and their general average was higher.

Sir Charles Wyndham now makes this contribution to the debate:

"It must be remembered," he says, "Americans always are talking. They imbibe fluency with their mother's milk. I don't consider, however, that there is anything like the same proportion of really good public speakers in America as there is in England."

Inquiry at the offices of the Interstate Commerce Commission discloses the fact that the commission is having a close check made of all advances in freight rates.

The body, of course, gets no official information of the proposed advances until they are set forth in tariffs which are required by law to be filed with the commission thirty days prior to the date of going into effect. Up to this time the principal advances disclosed in the tariffs filed are in the rates on packing house products, grain and grain products, from Ohio River crossings to southeastern territory, ranging from 2 to 4 cents per 100 pounds, according to the commodity; rates on sugar from Atlantic seaboard points and New Orleans to Chicago. Duluth, St. Paul and other northwestern points, of 2 cents per 100 pounds; class rates from Mississippi River points and Kansas City to Texas common points, ranging from 10 cents on first-class to 4 cents on the lowest class.

MAIL THIEF CAUGHT

and Proof is Positive.

KANSAS CITY, MO., July 27.—Postoffice officials claim to have obtained positive proof that Charles Stevens, the negro arrested here Saturday charged with having stolen a mail pouch containing $50,000 from the Union station, three weeks ago, is the man wanted. Late yesterday Inspector Vickery, during a severe "sweating" of the prisoner, obtained evidence which, it is believed, will lead to the finding of the greater part of the stolen money. There were sixty-two packages in the stolen pouch, making it possible for the lodging of as many counts against the man, and this may mean life imprisonment.
